

My husband is a over-the-road trucker based out of Sioux City, Ia. He would be totally lost without his weather reprts for cities on his route.He likes to know a day or 2 ahead of time what kind of weather he's heading into, especially the unpredictable spring storms in the midwest. Please let XM radio keep this life saving service.. It is our right to have this service.